Overview

Is solar energy a sustainable solution for Myanmar?

Myanmar is increasingly prioritizing solar energy development as a sustainable solution to address its energy shortages and improve rural electrification. The solar energy market has grown significantly in recent years, driven by technological advances and declining costs.

How much solar power does Myanmar produce?

“Average annual total of solar power production in Myanmar varies between 1,150 kWh/kWp (kilowatt-peak) and 1,600 kWh/kWp, with high values in the central region. In the mountains, power production is lower: up to 20% or more due to terrain shading,” according to their Myanmar research report.

Can solar power help a disadvantaged population in Myanmar?

“Moreover, solar can help ensure a just energy transition for citizens affected by energy poverty. Furthermore, 75–85% of Myanmar’s population of lives within a 25–50-kilometer radius of high voltage power lines, which makes for ideal locations to develop medium- and large-scale solar projects,” they noted.

Does Burma have a solar system?

Burma’s (Myanmar’s) electricity generation mainly depends on gas and hydropower, while renewable sources such as solar and wind contribute merely one percent to the overall output. However, residential solar systems have gained significant popularity and widespread adoption since the year 2022.

Why is solar energy important in Myanmar?

Solar renewable energy is widely recognized for its environmentally friendly nature, sustainability, and positive environmental impact. The solar industry in Myanmar has experienced a significant expansion of ten times its previous size within the last year.

Is Myanmar ready for solar power?

With a solar power probable capacity of 51 Terawatt-hours annually, it has barely scratched the surface of its potential. However, things are looking up for Myanmar's solar prospects if recent developments are anything to go by. Despite continuing political instability, the government of Myanmar recently completed a 1 Gigawatts solar tender.
